Has just returned from Chicago, and has bought over Five Hundred BUFFALO ROBES, and will offer them to the trade at very low prices up to the 20th of December. After that date they will be shipped to New York at much better prices. Come one, come all, and get a No. 1 robe for a small amount of money. Positively no Gredit given on them. P. S.—Having just received a telegram from Middle Port, Mass., accepting my offer for 100 of the Domestic or Hemlock tanned bull Buffalo Robes which I will sell at $4.50 to $5.50; the same that all other parties are palming off for Indian tanned robes at from $7, $9 and $10. So remember that $4.50 to $5.50 buys a Hemlock tanned robe. Sale of robes to commence on Saturday, Nov. 25th. Florida, Louisiana and South Carolina are still in doubt, but there is no doubt that S. D. Hount sells Buffalo Robes at $4.50 to $5.50. S. D. Houpt sells Buffalo Robes at $4.50 to $5.50 Give us this day a Buffalo Rob

The ce ebrated author, in this admirable Essay, clearly demonstrates, from a thirty years successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the Frife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, private-ity, and radically.
